

The SNAC Program for fall 2012 began with a great head-start of late summer plantings by our parent volunteers. Once school started the Garden was healthy and ready for incoming students. The Program highlight for 2012 year was bringing an overwintered carrot to flower, and into seed!

